

GE Aviation, United Way team up for projects

Photos special to the Daily Record

GE Aviation and United Way of Northeast Florida teamed up Tuesday and Thursday as part of GE Days of Caring to promote goodwill and beautification of Jacksonville neighborhoods. More than 180 volunteers took part in 14 projects in the area. The organizations have partnered for the event the past four years and helped more than 30 local nonprofits.

